Local Notes.

Lancaster will have a Sunday mail, beginning Sunday morning.

Rev G P Simmons, principal of Madison Institute, Richmond, will fill Bro Tinder's pulpit the last Sunday in this month.

Strayed, from my pasture on Falls Lick Pike, Red Helder, with markings in face, 18 months old weigh about 675 lbs.

Mr Joseph Falconer has the largest crop of tomatoes in town. They are tremendous in size and delicious. Uncle Joe is the boss gardener.

Now is the best time to visit Crab Orchard Springs, and if you are all run down, feel weak and tired, go over there and get the benefits of the splendid waters and excellent fare.

Mr F M Mullinger has resigned his position with Mr Thomas Anderson to go with W B Woolford, of Lexington.
They shipped a string of runners from there to Montreal, Canada, Wednesday morning.

A big crowd is attending the Crab Orchard fair and the meeting will be one of the most successful our good neighbors ever held, the show of stock is fine and weather perfect. Drive over and spend a most delightful day.

The W. C. T. U. Library will be open Tuesday nights at 8 to 9 o'clock and Saturday afternoons from 2:30 to 3:30 o'clock. Very attractive lot of bright, new books have just been received. Come and see them.

There were two wrecks on the Rowland branch Monday, the morning passenger train jumping the track at Gilberts Creek and the mixed train leaving the rail near Paint Lick. No damage was done but each train was delayed six to eight hours.

Laying of Corner Stone.
The Crab Orchard Masons will lay the corner stone for their handsome new lodge rooms on July 25th, at 3:30 p. m., and extend an invitation to the craft to be present and participate.
The services are very pretty and entertaining.

Will Change to Saturday.
Beginning Saturday, August 5, I will change my dates and be in Lancaster Studio every Saturday. Will be there on Friday's until that date, but please remember the change. I am better equipped than ever to do the best of work, and know I can please you.
Fox, the Photographer.

As the editor of The Record will leave Saturday for the press meeting at Crab Orchard, we have secured the services of the old wheel-hoss, Judge M D Hughes to look after the news matter during our absence. If you want job printing, call on Mr Leonard Miller and he will wait upon you promptly and satisfactorily.

Will YOU Be There?
A meeting of all those interested in the project of building the new hotel will be held in the Police Court Room, Tuesday night, at 8 o'clock.
Make it a point to attend—if you have not subscribed to the capital stock do so at once and add your influence by being present. If you cannot, or will not take stock, hustle for the enterprise—Tuesday night, 8 o'clock—the Police Court room the place.

A Serious Accident.
Mr Thomas Barr, of Wilmore, who was here with an exhibit of machinery met with a very serious accident at the fair grounds. While exhibiting a feed cutter, a piece of the machine broke and struck Mr Barr on the head making an ugly gash and a serious wound. He was taken to the residence of Miss Sallie Tillett where every thing was done for him.
He is very much better and will return to his home in a few days. It was reported that he was injured by a gasoline engine but this was a mistake, the feed cutter was being driven by the gasoline engine.

The Country Boy.
The country boy in youth has been forced to take exercise in the way of chopping firewood and working the garden developing his arms and muscles, so he begins life with a good physical organization. If the girls could be induced to systematically do some such work they would have larger and better developed lungs and bust which would greatly add to their health and longevity.
We breed up the domestic animals to greater constitutional vigor, why not train up or breed up a better framed and more durable woman and manhood.

The country boy is the foundation of the State. He may not have the highest education, but he will win in most of the avocations of life. He is generally noted for sticking to his calling and succeeding on the farm or in any other class of industry. He is plain in his manners, quick to do his duty, and, though it may require laborious effort, he perseveres until it is accomplished.

The country boy enters upon any luty with the will to succeed. Such boys have grown up to be leading citizens and made out of themselves the model statesman and leaders.

Lost at Fair Ground.
A gold bar pin with star, crescent and pearls. Liberal reward for return to Miss Frankie Kauffman.

For Sale.
Having decided to quit the paper business I will sell, cheap, all my agencies consisting of The Cincinnati Post, Cincinnati Times Star and Louisville Evening Post. For information apply to Arthur Joseph.

Fine School for Young Ladies.
We call attention to the big advertisement of Madison Institute, in this issue of The Record. This is one of the best schools in the South, and a large number of pupils attend. The faculty is especially fine this year, and parents will make no mistake by sending their daughters there.

Sunday Mail.
Notice is hereby given that there will be a Sunday mail from Lancaster to Stanford beginning July 23rd. The wagon will leave Lancaster at 9:30 a m arriving at Stanford at 12 noon. Returning, leave Stanford on receipt of mail from train due at Stanford at 12: 30 p. m. and arrive at Lancaster about 3 p. m. Post office will open long enough for you to get your mail. All mail put in box by 9 a. m., will be forwarded. Office will not be open to deliver mail on Sunday morning.
W T West, Postmaster.

Hen Profits.
A farmer in the Berkshire hills calculated on a profit of three dollars a year on every hen. He hatches the chickens in April, which is the best month in the year in which to hatch medium sized breeds. He makes production of cost for market the foundation of profit and strives to have eggs to sell in November and December.
He carries but a few old hens over winter, relying on the pullets for winter laying. This friend of mine claims to have averaged 170 eggs each hen yearly, producing eggs at a cost of not far from ten cents a dozen—Prairie Farmer.

The Funeral of a Town.
A town that never has anything to do in a public way, is on the way to the cemetery. Any citizen who will do nothing for his town, furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from business to give to city affairs, is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise, is driving the hearse. The man who is always pulling back from any public enterprise, throws bouquets on the grave. The man who is so stingy and selfish as to be howling hard times preaches the funeral sermon and sings the doxology, and thus the town lies buried, free from all sorrow and care.

The Stay-at-Homes.
Courier Journal:—Let not those who are packing their trunks to migrate to the seashore, the creek shore or the mountains pity the stay-at-homes. For the stay-at-homes are going to have a very pleasant sort of a summer, thank you.

First of all, they're going to be at home. That's something. That means comfortable clothing, personal freedom, the luxury of old friends. Then for health giving recreation in the open they have the parks and the country. They may saunter through these, feast their eyes on the mass of green and fill their lungs with fresh air, or they may lie down on the grass and revel in the shade of venerable trees. If they wish exercise they may take their golf clubs along and enjoy the most fascinating of games, or with their tennis rackets may toss the bouncing balls back and forth over the net and with congenial companions turn tedious hours into merry ones. * * * If the stay-at-homes are men they have a fine chance to take pretty-stay-at-home maidens a walking through avenues lined with leafy trees or in the evenings to sit spooning on the front veranda. There are both men and girls who will testify to the complete enjoyment of such a pastime.

Oh, yes; the stay-at-homes will have all these things and more. It is enough to make the summer emigrants—who have to make the summer emigrants—who have to worry about where to go, bother about a summer wardrobe, trouble themselves and others with packing and hauling piles of baggage, change their apparel ten times a day, rub elbows with strangers whom they do not care a rap for, talk with persons who do not interest them, dance because they haven't any thing else to do, find their conversation reduced to silly prattle about fellow-boarders and so forth and so forth —It is enough to make the go-aways turn green in envying the lot of the stay-at-homes.

A COMPLETE SUCCESS.
A Fair Show of Stock, Pleasant Weather, and a Happy Crowd Made Up Lancaster Fair.

The Lancaster Fair which was held three days of last week was one of the most successful and enjoyable ever held in the State. Large crowds attended each day and the officers deserved great credit for the handsome entertainment given. The grounds are beautifully located, with abundant shade and plenty of room for all kinds of exhibits, stables and etc. The premiums offered were unusually large for a country fair and brought together the leading horse men and the best stock in the state. There was no disorder and everything passed off happily. It was our intention to publish the lists of winners in each ring but lack of help this week makes it impossible to do so. Every ring was well filled and some of them brought forth the warmest contests ever seen in a country fair ring. While the officers went to a great expense in preparing for the fair yet the stock holders will come out several dollars to the good on their stock.

NOTES.
The association furnished the dinners and the meals were fine and well served.

The fancy turnout premium was won by Mr Weisiger, of Danville, and Miss Elizabeth Anderson, of this city.
Mrs James I Hamilton won the premium for the best lady rider.

The contest for the best boy rider was quite lively, with a great many entries. Master John Gill Kinnaird was given the blue tie and Master Dar-Ekin the red.

The baby show was quite interesting. The first premium in the boy's ring went to the son of Cal Nevius and that of the girl's was given to the daughter of Mr and Mrs Dexter Ballou. For the handsomest boy or girl the prize was given to the daughter of Dr and Mrs H M Grant.

Saxton's band was on hand and added much to the pleasure of the occasion.
A tremendous crowd attended the fair dance Friday evening and all spent a very pleasant evening. Sweeney's large store room was used and Saxton's orchestra furnished the music.

Good Repairing.
If your sewing machine, bicycle, locks, or any other machine is out of repair, ring up Bristow Conn and he will call for the work and have it ready in less time than it takes to tell it. He is one of the best workmen in the business, and his work is honest in every way. Charges very reasonable.
Ring him up at Conn's shop. tf.

CENTRAL RECORD.

Issued Weekly. $1.00 per Year.

LOUIS LANDRAM.

Lancaster, Ky., July 21, 1905

The yearly income of the Emperor of Germany is only $4,000,000. Poor man. It is difficult for him to make both ends meet. The salary of the president of the United States is the great sum of $50,000, and he has about 35 cents left over at the end of each year. Presumably he has. It is reported, however, that he has to draw on his private fortune for funds to tide over with and have the odd cents. It is dollars to doughnuts though, that he gets more satisfaction out of the $50,000 than the kaiser gets out of his $4,000,000.

The great religious revival that has swept over Wales has seriously interfered with the work in the coal mines. The miners, it seems, have nearly all been converted and have quit swearing. The mine mules, used for years to being goaded on with the fiercest kind of oaths, now refuse to budge unless sworn at. And the miners will no longer swear, so the output of the miners might try the idea of singing them at the mules.

Erroll Dunbar, an actor, is engaged on a young Boston woman who has an annual income of $50,000 and who will come into possession of a $6,000,000 estate on the death of her mother. Mr Dunbar's most familiar role on the stage is "Mephistopheles" in "Faust". With his added fortune he may be tempted to keep on playing the devil.

In North Carolina a little girl of 11 years by her presence of mind saved a railroad train from being wrecked. The railway whose property had been saved gave her the money for a college education—the desires of the heart. It was a graceful thing to do and proves that not all corporations are heartless.

A Chicago University professor is reiterating the old claim that the Bible is not much of a book from either a literary or historical viewpoint. To think of a Chicago University professor taking up with such a chestnut as this. To have been in the keeping with his fellow professors he should have advanced the theory that the Bible was written by the aborigines of this country, one of whom sailed to the Holy Land thousands of years ago with the manuscript in his possession.

We would like to think that there is no more graft in the country than for merely; that we hear so much about it nowadays because an aroused public conscience is hunting down the grafters. But then there is a lot of it.

Did you ever notice that when a bank failure is first announced there are reported assets to pay out dollar for dollar, but that after months of developments and disclosures about 10 cents on the dollar is realized?

We would like to read of some rich woman being robbed of her jewels, where the value was placed at some other figure than $10,000 or $25,000. Some woman can make a hit by being robbed of $25 worth of gems.

Citizens of Smithville, Mo., have nominated Thomas W. Lawson for the presidency. If by some chance Mr. Lawson should become a candidate for this high office, his platform would probably be the rear end of a special train.

The discussion is still going on as to who is the "father of the American navy." We confess our ignorance as to the identity of the old gentleman, but whoever he was he certainly left behind an extravagant family.

In some parts of the country brick layers are demanding a salary (not wages) of $6.50 a day. After awhile they may demand 10 cents a brick, with an agreement that no workman will lay over 1,000 bricks a day.

A mother-in-law of Southbury, Mass. was caught in a trap the other night which her son in law swears up and down he set in the hope of catching deer which were despoiling his truck gardens.

Isn't it pleasant when you hear a band play or orchestra play some familiar strain and you lean forward to drink in the melody, to have some brash youth behind you begin to whistle the air?

Now that pictures of the bathing beaches and their sylph like habitues are appearing in the papers, we are more anxious than ever for our vacation.

It is about time for the annual stories of cats coming to the rescue of motherless broods of chickens and raising the little feathered creatures.

The Wilkesbarre, Pa., newsboy who has fallen heir to $20,000, will probably immediately proceed to get out a few "uxtries."

The collar starchers at Troy are on a strike. They ought to be able to put up a star fight.

The Diamond Cure.

The latest news from Paris is, that they have discovered a diamond cure for consumption. If you fear consumption or pneumonia. It will however, be best for you to take that great remedy mentioned by W. T. Magee of Vanlee, Tenn. "I had a cough, for fourteen years. Nothing helped me, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which gave instant relief, and effected a permanent cure." Unequaled quick cure, for Throat and Lung Troubles. McRoberts Drug Store, price 50c and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

NINA.

W A Wheeler still continues poorly. Hugh Gayley and John H Todd, of Madison, visited at Joe A Ross' last Sunday.

Mr and Mrs W T Watson visited the family of David McClanahan, of Madison last week.

Mr John Cox, of Hot Springs, Ark., is here on a visit to Mr Jack Cox, who has been very sick but is better.

Next Saturday at 2 p. m. and Sunday morning at 11 o'clock are the regular appointments at Freedom. Important business to attend to Saturday.

J T Jackson, our clever post master, was made happy on the 7th, it being his birthday, by the gathering of relatives and friends, who brought baskets filled with the very best of good things to eat. The day was very happily spent.

FLATWOOD

W H Furr went to Crab Orchard Sunday.

Silas Baird bought six hogs from Wm Campbell for $25.

Our school began last Monday with Miss Maude Spainhower as teacher.

Mrs G W Bryant, of Covington, visited several with her sister, Mrs W H Furr.

W H Furr has his mill about ready for work and will grind every Tuesday and Friday.

Mrs John McCarty, of Rowland, came last week to visit her sister, Mrs W H Furr, and while here her four month's old baby which had not been very well for some time grew suddenly worse and on Friday morning died. It was taken to Rowland Saturday for interment. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the community.

Bent Her Double.

"I knew no one for four weeks, when I was sick with typhoid and kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Annie Hunter, of Pittsburg Pa., "and when I got better, although I had one of the best doctors I could get, I was bent double. And had to rest my hands on my knees when I walked from this terrible affliction I was rescued by Electric Bitters, which restored my health and strength, and now I can walk as straight as ever. They are simply wonderful." Guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney disorders: at McRoberts' Drug Store; price 50c 1m

Most people are sorry only after it is too late.

A Surprise Party.

A pleasant surprise party may be given to your stomach and liver, by taking a medicine which will relieve the pain and discomfort, via Dr King's New Life Pills. They are a most wonderful remedy, affording sure relief and cure for headache, dizziness and constipation. 25c at McRoberts' drug store. 1m It's easier not to want things than it is to get them.

Forced to Starve.

B. F. Loeck, of Concord, Ky., says: "For 20 years I suffered agonies, with a sore on my upper lip, so painful, sometimes that I could not eat. After vainly trying everything else, I cured it with Bucklen's Arnica Salve." It's great for burns, cuts and wounds. At McRoberts Drug Store. Only 25c.

The pills that act as a tonic, and not as a drastic purge, are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. They cure Headache, Constipation, Biliousness, etc. Early Risers are small, easy to take and easy to act—a safe pill. Mack Hamilton, hotel clerk at Valley City, N. D., says: "Two bottles of these Famous Little Pills cured me of chronic constipation." Good for either children or adults. W. H. Howell, Houston, Tex., says: "For years I have used Little Early Riser Pills in my family. No better pill can be used for constipation, sick headache, etc." than these famous pills. Scores of testimonials prove their worth. Sold by R E McRobert.

Your Home Paper.

"Your home paper never loses interest in you." To this, possibly, you have not given a passing thought. No matter if you like the newspaper man or if he likes you, if he is true to his profession and publishes a paper for the people he allows no personal matters or petty spites to interfere with news gathering.

He may meet you as a stranger, yet along with his best friends, chronicles your success and sorrows wherever you may be, and those who would otherwise forget you are ever and anon reminded of your existence by an item in your home paper. Others may deceive, and defraud you, but your home paper never forgets you.

Possibly you do not deserve decent treatment by the paper, but you get it just the same, and if it should at any time say things to cause your fur to turn the wrong way, study a moment and see if it has not at various times said many nice things for which you failed to give it credit.—Ex.

They already have a splendid list of desirable property for sale, both town property and farms and they are ready at all times to consult with prospective purchasers and to take options from sellers of all kinds of property.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure affords quick and all permanent relief from indigestion and all stomach troubles, builds up the system and so purifies that disease can not attack and gain a foothold as when in a weakened condition. The constantly increasing use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure by physicians of hospital and general practice of itself tells how this most wonderful modern discovery has proven to be the greatest digestant for the alleviation of a suffering humanity. Its many cures of both children and adults grows larger day by day. Sold by R. E. McRoberts.
